

Projective Geometry

you're a home
with exhaustive bedrooms, too countless to try and try that i might, you keep opening doors to rooms i can't quite fill and this inspires me about you, the infinitude of your space, this holy openness, unrivaled; it's what made you be the one and it's not a marketing ploy, it's just what you are,

and it's not something to be seen but something purely to be experienced the estate is real but you are unreal
